Spain & Her Islands

A visit to Spain is a journey of the senses, where late night fiestas, flamenco dancing, art and cuisine combine for one of the most fascinating cultural adventures found across Europe. Each of the seventeen autonomous regions has differences in language, culture and social attitude, with each holiday to the nation uncovering much more than the archetypal tales of paella, sangria and siestas. Authentic bars and restaurants can often be found in abundance, while family-friendly resorts on the sun-kissed Canary Islands might be of interest if you are looking for the ideal beach or an activity based retreat.

What our customers say..

"Year-round sun makes Spain a popular choice for families, with many fantastic family hotels providing lots of entertainment for all ages"

Helen, Elgin

Tenerife

Guaranteed year-round sunshine is one of many reasons why people visit Tenerife, a perennial choice for travellers looking for a safe, family-friendly destination with alluring beaches to be found in abundance. From Playa de las Américas’ appeal as an entertainment and activity haven, to Costa Adeje’s chic boutique hotels and Los Gigantes’ serene atmosphere, Tenerife is an enticing destination for all travellers.

What our customers say..

"Attractive beaches, watersports and exciting adventures to Loro Parque, Siam Park and the cliffs of Los Gigantes make this a great holiday destination"

Sam, Newquay

Lanzarote

A decidedly family-friendly beach destination, Lanzarote’s UNESCO World Biosphere status transcends it far beyond your average seaside escape. Take a camel safari through the Timanfaya National Park or learn to surf in dramatic Famara. From dining within volcanic caves, to exploring the otherworldly landscape by bike or foot, Lanzarote contains plenty of unique attractions and a varied assortment of appealing hotels from which to explore them.

What our customers say..

"Lanzarote is the ideal place to escape the winter chill for some much-needed sunshine, rest and relaxation"

Bev, Rugby

Gran Canaria

Gran Canaria's amiable spring-like conditions year-round ensure it's the perfect destination for both winter and summer getaways. Often depicted as a continent in miniature due to its strikingly varied terrain; green landscapes with volcanic peaks and ravines in the centre of the island overlook sunbathers on the beautiful golden sand beaches below on the coast. Multi-faceted holidays can be enjoyed as a result, where the history and gastronomy of the capital Las Palmas de Gran Canaria is offset by great hiking trails, world class golf and great wellness centres.

What our customers say...

"Gran Canaria has many beaches, uptempo towns and old world villages, and if you factor in amazing scenery, there really is something for everyone here"

Mark, Nottingham

Seaside Palm Beach

Gran Canaria

The Seaside Palm Beach Hotel in Gran Canaria is the first Design Hotel™ in the Canary Islands. You won't fail to be impressed by the uniqueness of the five star hotel's retro design. The 328 luxurious rooms and suites feature striking colours and contrasting materials. Quiet but centrally located, this hotel is surrounded by a fabulous palm tree oasis on the edge of a nature reserve, in the immediate vicinity of five-mile long golden sand beach and the famous dunes of Maspalomas. Seaside Palm Beach is well-known for exquisite gastronomy and its superb Spa with fantastic open air Health Garden.

Marbella

Located in the south of Andalusia, Marbella is a paradise of light and sunshine 325 days a year. Sheltered by the majestic Sierra Blanca mountains, Marbella hosts intriguing sights like its charming old town and yacht-lined marina. The sun and beach are essential parts of Marbella, but there are also many other things such as health and wellness, golf, watersports and eco-tourism which mean it has become a place to be enjoyed all year round.

Marbella is also the stomping ground of some of Spain’s most elite and exclusive. With 24 beaches to enjoy, it’s no wonder Marbella is a favourite with families and sun-worshippers alike.

What our customers say...

"I loved the narrow streets of Marbella Old Town with its quirky shops and boutiques. There were some particularly lovely restaurants in Orange Square. Puerto Banus is great if you love shopping and there's plenty of exciting nightlife!"

Steph, Worcester

Meliá Marbella Banús

★ ★ ★ ★

Marbella

Located in the exclusive area of Puerto Banús, Meliá Marbella Banús is a great choice when visiting the Costa del Sol with the beach, exclusive boutiques, golf courses and the infamous lively port all within easy reach. This stylish hotel provides bright and spacious rooms and suites and a variety of restaurant choices, including fine dining, themed and international buffets serving local products and dishes. The hotel offers three outdoor pools including a relaxing adult’s only pool, a fitness centre, an indoor heated pool, sauna and Turkish bath and a children’s play area and kid’s club. For a special experience, guests can also choose exclusive access to The Level (adults only +18 years) where plenty of special, personalised services are available. Whatever you are seeking from your Spanish holiday, this hotel offers an ideal location for you to combine relaxation, culture and leisure on the Golden Mile.

Balearics

Resting east of the Spanish mainland are the distinctively characterised sun, sea and sand slices of island paradise in the form of Ibiza and Mallorca. Maintaining an identity of their own away from the mainland and each other, the Catalan speaking Balearics each have their own dialects, cuisine and cultural traditions. Whether you holiday in bustling Mallorca, secluded Menorca or trendy Ibiza, you'll find something unique everytime.

Ibiza's reputation as a party-goer's dream destination somewhat masks its historic and bohemian roots; Mallorca's golden beaches, lively nightlife and iconic buildings, including Palma's Gothic Cathedral, mean this sun-kissed Balearic island has plenty to offer all interests.

What our customers say...

"With Majorca and Ibiza serving up some of the best beaches in the Balearics, it's always a tough decision which one we choose to visit"

Andrew, Dundee

Gran Meliá Victoria

Palma Mallorca

Surrounded by history and natural beauty, Gran Meliá Victoria offers the exceptional services and facilities expected of a luxury hotel. This five star hotel is located in the heart of the promenade overlooking the Bay of Palma. Wake up to gleaming yachts anchored in front of the hotel and to spectacular views of Palma de Mallorca. The sophisticated guest rooms have all been recently renovated and offer authentic luxury in every detail. Spoil yourself and relax in the wellness and fitness area, enjoy some poolside cocktails from the DRY BAR and take advantage of green fee savings at more than 20 golf courses on the island. Dine at the hotel's modern Basque grill restaurant, IKATZA. Discover the city's awe-inspiring Gothic Cathedral at its geographic and historical heart, or explore medieval streets lined with aristocratic townhouses, baroque churches, public squares, vibrant bohemian neighbourhoods and markets overflowing with delights of the island.

Aguas de Ibiza

Ibiza

An eco-hotel designed to mirror the island of Ibiza's most fundamental elements – air, water and light – make Aguas de Ibiza a calm, but luxurious, place to stay. In the small town of Santa Eulalia, this five star hotel has been recognised and honoured as the boutique hotel in Ibiza with the most innovative and ambitious concept of what it means to be environmentally friendly. Its location on the peaceful promenade and the natural surroundings make this a charming hotel from which to explore the beautiful beaches the island has to offer. The hotel has Michelin-starred dining, sea-facing guest rooms and a central setting ideal for day trips. There are three outdoor pools, one of which is adults-only, with different gardens and terraces to sunbathe, relax and enjoy stunning views. Enjoy this unique experience of luxury and exclusiveness together with typical Mediterranean hospitality.

Algarve

The Algarve is Portugal's most popular tourist destination – and with good reason. Striking cliffs overlooking crystalline golden sands provides one of the most alluring coastlines in the world. The calm waters of Portugal's southernmost region make it a quintessential beach getaway and lend themselves well to water sports and diving. Verdant forests and blossoming hills are home to a series of enchanting stone-built castle towns, while wine lovers regularly flock to the mountainous north to experience the quality produce of its terraced vineyards. The area's cultural diversity, affordability and approachability of its people support its enduring appeal.

What our customers say..

"Vilamoura is a resort with many golf courses and a nice marina and beach. The marina is surrounded by some lovely restaurants where you can sit and admire the yachts, and it is also very relaxed, with it being generally traffic-free"

Anantara Vilamoura Algarve Resort

★★★★★

Algarve

Along southern Portugal's picturesque Algarve coast, Anantara Vilamoura Algarve Resort stands just minutes from the marina and the beaches of Vilamoura. It is the first Anantara property in Europe and caters for every type of guest. For families, this resort has an unparalleled kids club programme managed by the World Wide Kids Company with football and dancing academies, golfing lessons and cooking school available for the whole family. There's also an adults-only area with Champagne Cabanas and the Cascade pool, which has a Sunshine Butler welcoming guests with refreshing water, sun protection and fruit kebabs on a regular basis. Anantara is a very prestigious spa brand and has fantastic wellness experience packages. With a tranquil setting close to all the glamour, this hotel offers many local touches, from a nightly Fado singer to furniture of wicker and cane, items of cork and regional pottery, as well as overlooking the green of the Arnold Palmer-designed Victoria golf course, which annually hosts the Portugal Masters. Anantara also offer a shuttle service taking guests to Vilamoura, the golf courses and the beach, running from morning until midnight.

Pine Cliffs Hotel, A Luxury Collection Resort

Algarve

Pine Cliffs Hotel, A Luxury Collection Resort - one of the leading luxury and family resorts in Europe - boasts a spectacular cliff-side location on the coastline of the Algarve, in Southern Portugal. This hotel draws inspiration from the region's Moorish history and the use of Portuguese tiles throughout evokes an authentic Algarve vibe. The resort curls around the clifftops, encompassing a golf course and guests descend to Falesia Beach via the hotel's lift or a footpath that cuts through the distinctive burnt orange cliffs. The area around the five star hotel is relatively urbanised with the lively town of Albufeira nearby. The hotel's spacious rooms have been fully renovated, but retain their local character, including terracotta floors and tiled headboards. From the children's village to the beauty salon, health club, 9-hole golf course, Annabel Croft tennis academy and boutiques, there really is something for everyone in this award-winning destination.

Greece & Her Islands

As the perceptive cradle of Western civilisation, this ancient jewel of the Mediterranean offers an alluring array of tantalising cuisine, turquoise-hued waters, island beaches and an intriguing journey into the early roots of contemporary society. Ancient ruins, mesmerising museums and thought-provoking art houses exist under azure skies and varied landscapes, while over a thousand Greek islands sit in the surrounding seas. This cultural treasure trove can be simultaneously enjoyed alongside inviting social warmth in traditional tavernas while enjoying an ouzo or two under the stars.

What our customers say...

“Greece captures the imagination like no other destination and conjures images of mythic beasts and legendary heroes”

Paul, Workington

Crete

An enchanting tapestry of inviting beaches and ancient discovery, surrounded by cosmopolitan cities and sleepy villages, make up the striking Cretan landscape. Ancient Greek mythology comes to life on an island where you can visit the birthplace of Zeus, while scenic driving and cycling tours through the orchards of Lasithi Plateau are rural bliss. Boating, kayaking or snorkelling amongst beautiful marine life are all great ways to take advantage of the crystal-clear Mediterranean Sea.

Corfu

With olive trees lining the landscape and luscious green hues of shrubbery surrounding inviting golden sands, mountainous Corfu’s expansive greenery offers a balance of both inland small-town calm and coastal resort-based activity. Visit the old quarters of the east-coast capital Corfu Town to explore the UNESCO-listed heritage site, before indulging in the vibrant nightlife and attractive avenues punctuated by inviting restaurants and cafes.

Mystique, A Luxury Collection Hotel

Santorini

The island of Santorini in Greece has long been an idyllic escape in the Mediterranean. Mystique, A Luxury Collection Hotel, sits atop Oia’s most famous cliffs, with stunning views of the crystalline blue waters of the Aegean Sea. The interior decor is a combination of traditional regional charm with a contemporary twist creating an atmosphere of rustic elegance. Each of the suites and villas boast panoramic views over both the sea and volcano. The mood is one of laidback luxury with the stylishly curvaceous infinity pool overlooking the Aegean caldera.

PERFECT FOR

What our customers say...

“The pictures don’t do this hotel justice. Mystique has amazing views and is located just before the touristy shops of Oia, which gave it a bit more privacy than some of the other upscale hotels we saw while walking”

Mike, Barnstaple

Vedema, A Luxury Collection Resort

Santorini

Tucked away within the medieval village of Megalohori, Vedema, A Luxury Collection Resort has evolved from a 400-year-old wine cellar and a 100-year-old mansion into a charming, luxurious and intimate retreat. Vedema houses spacious suites and villas, all with their own terraces and some with hot tubs or private pools surrounded by vineyards that overlook the village and Aegean Sea. Dedicated to the needs of seasoned travellers, this family-friendly resort encourages a sophisticated and relaxed philosophy for its guests.

PERFECT FOR

Cyprus

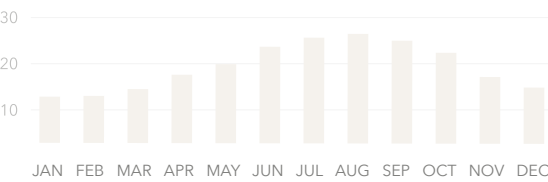

Characteristically Mediterranean in its provision of enticing sandy beaches, foliage-scattered mountains, ancient monasteries and classical ruins, modern-day Cyprus reaps the benefits of its war-torn past through a vast collection of historical relics, UNESCO-listed sites and imposing crusader castles in the north. The Greek-influenced southern part of the country has evolved in recent decades to include a wealth of well-equipped coastal resorts, with blissful sunshine creating the ideal environment to enjoy watersports or relaxing beach days. Villas and hotels are conveniently located near the best local eateries and entertainment venues, helping to make Cyprus a land of respite and pleasure.

EXPERIENCES

No matter how unusual or farfetched, check off your travel bucket list dreams as you embark on specialist and tailor-made adventures throughout Europe. Whether you've always wanted to ski the perfect piste in the Alps, experience the aura of the Northern Lights, or come face-to-face with Father Christmas, turn your dreams into reality with assorted bespoke itineraries.

Solo Travel

Explore new places in good company

Want to travel but can't find anyone to go with? Or just have itchy feet and want to hit the road as soon as possible? Then why not try an escorted tour for the solo traveller in you!

Take advantage of single traveller trips and have everything taken care of. From beginning to end, your Travel Counsellor will help you get the most out of your trip. Travelling solo is liberating, and with the right ingredients it is one of the best ways to see the world. Every trip is hosted by an experienced Tour Manager, while local guides provide extra insight and an added personal touch.

With a wide variety of trips to choose from, the world is truly your oyster. Go wine tasting and see the rolling hills of the Tuscan region on a Highlights of Tuscany tour. Explore the crossroads of recent German history on a Berlin city break.

Or try something completely different and head to Iceland where you'll see and experience some of Europe's most remarkable scenery in the shape of waterfalls, geysers and the Blue Lagoon.

Solo travel is not to be underestimated. Don't let a lack of other people hold you back.

Iceland

Stark beauty and remote tranquillity

Iceland is the magical land of ice and fire and invites visitors to sample some of its extraordinary scenery year-round.

For a flavour of what's on offer, take the Golden Circle tour. The Golden Circle is a belt of natural wonders in western Iceland and is a popular spot for tourists. Feel the spray of fresh water from the mighty Gullfoss Waterfall, see the point where two tectonic plates converge at Thingvellir National Park and experience the power of hot springs at Geysir.

Relax in luxury as you soak in the Blue Lagoon. The geothermal spa has a range of packages, all of which include access to the lagoon's luminous waters and an exfoliating mud mask so you can pamper the day away.

Spend some time in the country's only city and the world's highest capital, Reykjavik. Take in retrospective views from Yoko Ono's Imagine Peace Tower, step inside Iceland's second-tallest building in Hallgrímskirkja or enjoy craft ales by the sea at Bryggjan Brugghus brewery.

The Northern Lights are synonymous with Iceland, so make sure to get away from the bright lights of the city in order to enjoy the Aurora Borealis. There's also a chance to bask in the glory of endless daylight and revel in a myriad of celebrations for the annual summer solstice.

Lapland

Pure wonder and adventure

A holiday to Lapland is the ultimate Christmas present. The ceremonial home of Father Christmas is a great place to take the kids in the winter and has plenty of activities and stunning natural scenery to keep everyone happy.

Santa Claus' hometown is the stuff of fairytales. With snow-dusted conifers and a population of reindeer that exceeds the number of people living there, adventure awaits in Lapland.

Rovaniemi is Lapland's cosmopolitan capital and administrative centre. It is also where you'll find Santa Claus Village – one of the region's top attractions. Stay next door to Santa and meet the man himself, and don't forget to cross the magical Arctic Circle, which cuts right through the village.

The resorts of Yllas, Pallas and Levi are great places to take part in snow sports. Explore the region by way of cross-country skiing, enjoy the thrill of being transported by Husky-pulled sled, or get an adrenaline rush from zipping around on a snowmobile.

There's also Saariselkä, a winter wonderland that's home to Kakslauttanen Arctic Resort. This is where the world-famous glass igloos are. Watch the enchanting Northern Lights from the comfort of your own bed and sleep under the stars in these futuristic pods.

And don't forget Luosto, the ideal destination for those looking for pure nature and the peace of a small village. With almost no light pollution, this is one of the best places in the world to see the Northern Lights.
