HOLIDAYS IN FRANCE

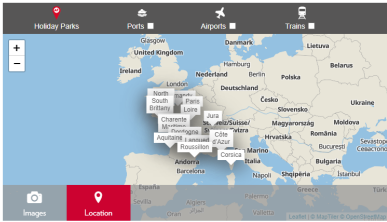

Camping in France

With the nation's spectacular mix of rolling countryside, enticing coastlines, and exceptional quality food and drink a major draw for millions each year, camping in France remains as popular as ever.

France is a country full of vivid contrasts, with every region packed full of distinct character, where thrill seekers, culture vultures and those pining for something altogether laid-back can find plenty to offer here.

Whether you are looking for campsites near famous theme parks in France such as Disneyland Paris, want to mingle with the locals on the French Riviera or simply relax in the sun on the golden beaches of Vendée, our handily located French holiday parks make camping in the north, central or south of France a great choice for your next family adventure.

CAMPING REGIONS OF FRANCE

BRITTANY

A family-friendly seaside holiday only a stone's throw from the UK means Brittany holidays are hard to beat. A dramatic coastline featuring sandy coves and harbours are an explorer's dream.

Discover Brittany

VENDEE

When looking for a mix of sun and nostalgia, a camping holiday in Vendée delivers in spades. An enviable position on a long beach stretch of the western coast, expect seaside bliss with charming towns and villages.

Discover Vendée

PARIS

The French capital represents a timeless holiday destination for young and old alike. An unforgettable campsite base for the kids to explore Disneyland Paris and a treasure trove of cultural delights for parents.

Discover Paris

NORMANDY

Top of the bucket list for those interested in wartime history, the visible impact of D-Day can still be witnessed today. Normandy holidays are also perfect for family biking tours along the beaches and rolling countryside.

LANGUEDOC

The best of rural France can be found in Languedoc. Renowned for its high-quality wines as much as the abundance of historical Roman landmarks, there's plenty for the whole family to enjoy either on the beach or inland.

Discover Languedoc

ROUSSILLON

Although part of the same region as Languedoc, Roussillon enjoys a distinctive character of its own. A shared border with Spain sees vibrant cultural influences, while a trip to Roussillon village itself is a must.

Discover Roussillon

DORDOGNE

Escape to the countryside when camping in Dordogne. Food enthusiasts will welcome the gourmet offerings here, with walking, cycling and canoeing all possible through this varied, fairytale-inspiring landscape.

Discover Dordogne

AQUITAINE

If you've ever dreamt of life as a French royal, Aquitaine is awash with 18th and 19th century history. Picture-perfect chateau vineyards, great food and an ideal campsite location near Biarritz and Bordeaux await.

Discover Aquitaine

JURA

Imagine a picture-perfect French countryside scene no more, as you step into Jura and its diverse landscape featuring eye-catching waterfalls, serene lakeside views and forest coverings ideal for the outdoor adventurer.

Discover Jura

CORSICA

Superb beaches and ever-changing landscapes ready-made for the photo reel. A great family getaway option in the Med, mountain ridges, traditional hilltop villages and boat trips form part of an actively laden adventure.
